

Yamhill-Carlton School District 1

Code: BBA
Adopted: 11/08/93
Orig. Code(s): 1160

School Board Powers and Duties

It is the policy of the District Board to exercise those powers granted to it, and to carry out those duties assigned it by statutes and rules. This will be in a manner to best meet the needs of the students and citizens of the District.

The Board retains full legislative authority over the school. Executive, supervisory and instructional authority is delegated to the superintendent. The legislative authority retained includes:

1. Establishing district policies;
2. Contracting for goods and services;
3. Inspecting or employing others to inspect;
4. Determining the educational program to be provided;
5. Employing staff and make decisions on their continued employment.
6. Regulating the financial operations of the District;
7. Maintaining adequate physical facilities;
8. Regulating other aspects of the schools, District, and it's educational programs.
