Hiring Classified Staff

The superintendent shall be responsible for hiring the classified personnel with the approval of the Board. The hiring shall be probationary until the ability to perform the job has been determined and disposition to fit in the school situation is established. The usual probationary period is six months but may be waived at the Board's discretion. Selection will be made from the best qualified applicants including those presently employed.

Equal opportunity for employment shall be based upon the individual's qualifications and ability to perform the functions with or without reasonable accommodations.
