Detention/In-school Suspension of Students **

A school administrator or teacher may detain a student for disciplinary reasons after school hours, provided the parent has been notified of the detention and, in the case of bus students, arrangements have been made for the student's transportation home. In cases where transportation is required, 24-hour notice will be given so that transportation may be arranged.

Parents may be asked to arrange for the transportation of the detained student; however, if the parent cannot or will not provide it, an alternative disciplinary procedure must be substituted.

Students who are detained after school should not be left unsupervised. Supervision will be provided, or arranged for, by the teacher or administrator who detains them.

After school detention on one day is to be limited to 60 minutes unless the district wishes to provide Saturday School.

From time to time, due to persistent misbehavior, students may be reassigned to a separate supervised environment. Such detention or in-school suspension is designed to isolate the student from other students and from the normal classroom activities.
